

POST-ELECTION 2016 – RESOURCE LIST

Uncertainty regarding the post-election climate of the U.S. has created questions and requests for information and guidance. Below are some resources for the UCLA Law community.

Get information on all the resources at UCLA in one place! The UCLA Office of Equity, Diversity and Inclusion updates this site with resources for processing the election.

- <https://equity.ucla.edu/programs-resources/processing-the-election/>
 - CAPS – Counseling and Psychological Services - www.caps.ucla.edu

Check out the University of California’s Principles Against Intolerance:

- <http://regents.universityofcalifornia.edu/aar/mare.pdf>

Check out the University of California’s Statement After the Election

- <https://www.universityofcalifornia.edu/press-room/university-california-statement-election>

Get the facts! All news sources are not the same and Facebook and other websites may provide false, misleading or “clickbait” headlines to get you to read. Some reliable daily news resources (still may have a “spin” to their story):

- New York Times – www.nytimes.com
- Washington Post – www.washingtonpost.com
- The Boston Globe – www.bostonglobe.com
- The Wall Street Journal – www.wsj.com
- Forbes – www.forbes.com
- The Atlantic – www.theatlantic.com
- National Public Radio – www.npr.org
- List of Fake or Misleading news websites:
<http://nymag.com/selectall/2016/11/fake-facebook-news-sites-to-avoid.html>

Looking for bipartisan information? <http://bipartisanpolicy.org/>

Concerned about immigration and DACA Issues? www.nilc.org/issues/daca

Concerned about climate change? <https://law.ucla.edu/emmett>

Concerned about healthcare policy? - <https://www.hcp.med.harvard.edu/>

Interested in learning about criminal justice reform? www.restorativejustice.org

Want to DO SOMETHING?

- <http://www.thefader.com/2016/11/09/protest-donate-volunteer>

Witnessing or experiencing intimidating or inappropriate behavior? Speak up! Go to Room 1224 and talk with the Office for Student Affairs. As a reminder: UCLA Law is committed to creating and maintaining a community free of all forms of exploitation, intimidation, and harassment.

(SOME) GENERAL RESOURCES FOR ACTIVISTS, ALLIES and ALL HUMAN BEINGS:

- Get educated about Implicit Bias, Stereotype Threat, Campus Climate and more:
 - <https://equity.ucla.edu/programs-resources/educational-materials/>
 - <https://implicit.harvard.edu/implicit/>
 - http://www.huffingtonpost.com/john-fitzgerald-gates-phd/5-steps-to-understanding-racial-bias_b_7446510.html
 - <http://www.genderbiasbingo.com/>
- Think about volunteering for or donating to one of these organizations:
 - Center for Reproductive Rights - <https://www.reproductiverights.org/>
 - Natural Resources Defense Council - <https://www.nrdc.org/>
 - Mexican American Legal Defense & Educational Fund <http://www.maldef.org/>
 - International Refugee Assistance Project - <http://www.refugeerights.org>
 - NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund - <http://www.naacpldf.org/>
 - The Trevor Project - <http://www.thetrevorproject.org/>
 - Council on American-Islamic Relations (CAIR) – www.cair.com
- Conservative?
 - Read about how conservatives can confront racism:
<http://thefederalist.com/2015/12/03/its-time-for-conservatives-to-confront-racism/>
 - Affect positive change through advocacy: www.leadershipinstitute.org
 - Take a look at Black Lives Matter policies that align with traditional conservative ideology: <http://www.nationalreview.com/article/437772/black-lives-matter-policies-conservatives-can-support>
- Obtain training in cross-cultural communication, conflict resolution and community building:
 - UCLA Law Office for Student Affairs (studentaffairs@law.ucla.edu)
 - <http://law.ucla.edu/student-life/restorative-practices/>
- Check out ideas to make change in policing policies at the local, state and federal levels: <http://www.joincampaignzero.org/#vision>
- Become familiar with the effects of white privilege (starting points only):
 - <http://m.huffpost.com/us/entry/7770652.html>
 - <http://thefeministbreeder.com/explaining-white-privilege-broke-white-person/> (explicit language)
 - http://www.huffingtonpost.com/george-sachs-psyd/10-ways-white-liberals-pe_b_8068136.html
- Learn about the latest laws and policies affecting LGBTQ rights:
 - <http://williamsinstitute.law.ucla.edu/>
 - www.nclrights.org
 - <https://lalgbtcenter.org/>
- Check out Bryan Stephenson and others at the Equal Justice Initiative: www.eji.org.

This list is a starting point only and was created by flawed and biased humans. If you have additional resources to add, please let us know! Send them to studentaffairs@law.ucla.edu –UCLA Law School, Office for Student Affairs