Knowledge for Change:

UCLA's Inaugural Sexual Violence and Sexual Harassment Awareness Week

April 16 through April 20

How did sexual harassment become law?

What is the University of California doing to end sexual harassment and sexual violence?

How does UCLA's Title IX Office address transparency, confidentiality, accountability, and due process?

What resources are available for survivors of sexual harassment and sexual violence?

How does sexual harassment and sexual violence intersect with other forms of inequality, such as racism and homophobia?

RSVP and more information at: https://equity.ucla.edu/awareness

UCLA Equity, Diversity and Inclusion

BRUINX

Staff Diversity & AA/EEO Compliance Office