

THE BEGINNING AND END OF FREE SPEECH IN AMERICA: IT'S MORE COMPLICATED THAN YOU THINK

Where did the modern notion of free speech originate, and what does it mean today? Where is the concept headed? And what do we do when it conflicts with other values and is challenged by technology? Join us for a presentation by best-selling author and UC National Center for Free Speech and Civic Engagement Fellow Ellis Cose, discussing the historical implications and current debates surrounding free speech in America.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 31, 2018
12:15 PM - 1:15 PM
UCLA SCHOOL OF LAW, ROOM 1327

RSVP at bit.ly/coseucla

Lunch will be provided